Wild, Wild West Wildly Successful

The 2008 Rotary Rodeo is now just a memory. Although the financial numbers are still coming in and being tallied, preliminary attendance figures indicate the most successful event the club has yet had. Most analysts seem to agree that the cool evenings brought on by the scattered early rainshowers, along with the fact that July 4th fell on a Friday this year and unusually high gasoline prices kept lots of people at home, contributed to the record crowds. This writer prefers to believe that the incredibly hard work put in by the club's membership in ticket sales and distribution made a significant contribution, as did the excellent pre-event publicity.

Many attendees had very nice things to say, and several posted their comments on the stories appearing in the Southwest Texas LIVE ezine. Be sure to check out the extensive coverage at www.swtexaslive.com and www.delriohewsherald.com. Most of the comments seem to be most appreciative of the family orientation of the event.

To all our sponsors, and to all those who contributed in any way, our heartfelt thanks. To all those members who put in such hard work, pat yourselves on the back for a job well done! Most especially, the contributions of our spouses should not go unnoticed.

As hard numbers begin to become available, they will be reported in future newsletters.

4. Will it be Beneficial to All Concerned?
