Prehistoric Weaponry/Tools of the Lower Pecos

Jack Johnson, a master’s degree student from Texas Tech University working at Shumla, gave a very interesting program on the prehistoric weaponry and tools of the Lower Pecos at last week’s meeting. If you aren’t coming to the meetings, you are missing out on some wonderful presentations...

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Rotary International President D. K. Lee will be visiting San Antonio on Wednesday, August 20. He will be speaking at noon at the Rotary Club of San Antonio, and again that evening at the Institute of Texan Cultures. Reservations are required, and all the details can be found at www.rotary5840.org.

The blood drive on Saturday, August 2, netted 35 pints of blood. Thanks to everyone who participated, and to Mike Coplan for setting it up. Another date will be scheduled soon.

President Kurt and wife Danielle greet new member Randy Hill.

Our new exchange student, Tiffany Hung, arrived from Taiwan yesterday afternoon. Tiffany is 16 and speaks excellent English. Please see Jeff Mahl if you are interested in hosting Tiffany this year. It’s a great experience!
