Federal Public Defenders Office

Jeff Mahl arranged a very interesting program for our annual celebration of Law Month. Mr. Frank Morales is an attorney with the Federal Public Defender's Office. He and his staff are assigned federal cases for those accused who cannot afford their own counsel.

Mr. Morales gave us a very eloquent argument about why it is necessary to provide defense counsel. He cited several cases of injustice, due to a variety of reasons, and emphasized the fact that it is not enough to be a nation of laws, but that the laws should be enforced fairly and equitably.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

The Board has approved the application of Roxana Ortiz, US Customs and Border Protection agent, for membership. Her application was submitted by Aida Campos, and she lists Claudia Guerra, Adriana Heide, Tony Hernandez and Randy Hill as references. Please notify any board member of objections prior to 5/19/09.

Our incoming exchange student from Brazil will be arriving in August. Danielle Hill is looking for host families, so if you are interested, or know someone who might be (host families do not have to be Rotarians), please contact her ASAP.

Loral Hunt was inducted as a new member. Loral is a lawyer, but is the office administrator for her husband's pediatric dental practice, Amigo Children's Dental, PA. She is eager to go to work, so be sure to recruit her for your committees. She can be reached at 778-KIDS, or at lhunt@amigochildrensdental.com.

A Rotary Moment

Bringing a guest to a Rotary meeting is an important part of being a Rotarian. It is a terrific way to get to know others in your organization, or your organization's partners such as clients and suppliers. It is the primary means of getting out our message of service to the community, and of recruiting new members.

There is a certain etiquette in bringing a guest to Rotary. Please be sure that the treasurer or secretary knows that you have a guest when you arrive at the club meeting place. They will be given a card which is a record of their visit, and tells a little about our organization. This also ensures that they will be properly introduced during that part of the agenda.

Please introduce your guest to those Rotarians seated at your table. If at all possible, introduce them to the club president, either during the meal or after the program. If you are being introduced to a guest, please make them feel welcome and part of your table's conversation.

Always thank your guest for coming, and follow up with them to see whether they might be interested in membership.
